

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

EVENTUALLY—WHY NOT NOW?

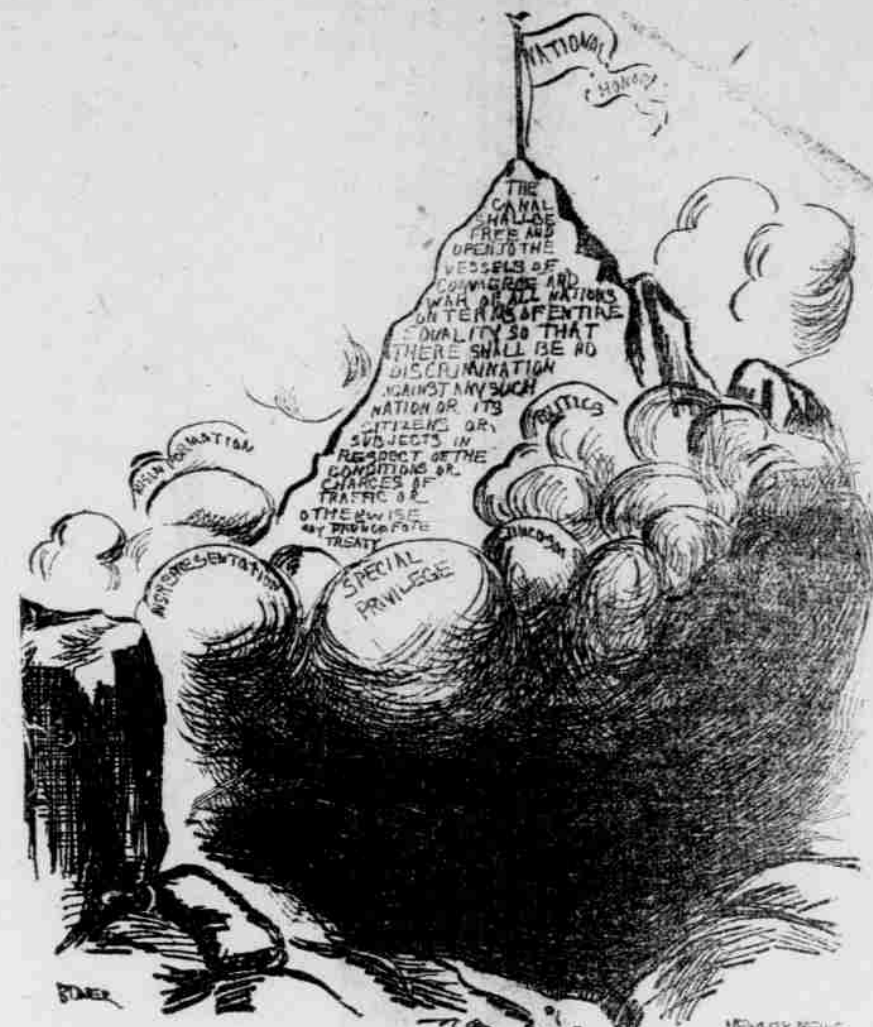

Are They Going to Wait Until He Goes Under?

NEW STYLE WIGS

ABOVE IT ALL

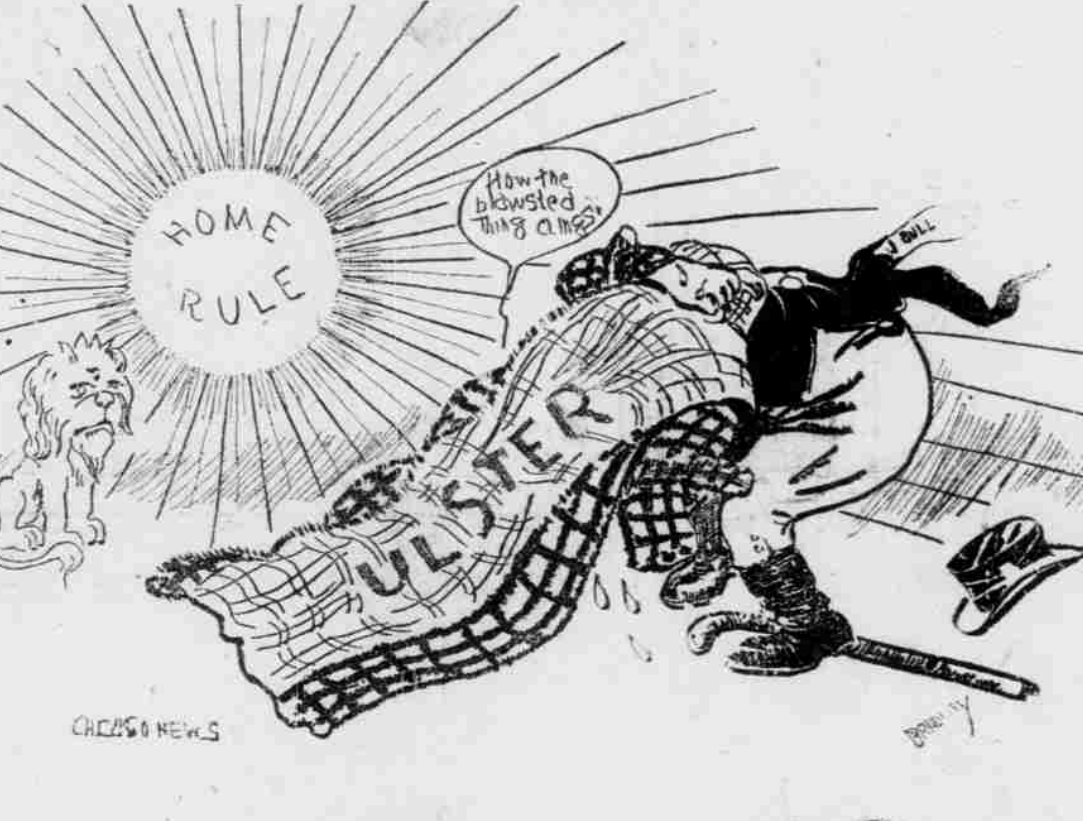

HE WAS THEIR ENEMY ONCE

"NOT YET, BUT SOON"

THAT AWKWARD MOMENT—SHEDDING THE ULSTER

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County NORTH LYME

Rev. Francis Purvis preached in Millington last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hedgecock and little daughter arrived home from High Point, N. C. Tuesday of this week. Sherman Royce received two ugly blows on his neck and face recently. When pulling on a limb of a tree, it fell on him, instead of on the ground, as he expected. N. S. Strong has been sewing wood for farmers here this week. Edward Webster is ill with rheumatic fever. Mrs. Louise Jewett is visiting friends in Deep River. Albert Stoddard and family moved to Waterford last week. Allen Way of Chesterfield has hired the house vacated by Mr. Stoddard. J. W. Stark moved the household goods of Dr. Cook of Hamburg to East Haddam last week. Farms Leased. H. A. Gates and Merrill Babcock of Meriden have hired the L. Q. Raymond place and agreed to move their families the middle of this month. Geo. Miller has hired Herbert Maynard's farm for the coming year.

ASHWILLETT

A. A. Morgan was in Loudon on business the past week. John Morgan was a Sunday guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Morgan. Arthur N. Main has a three year old son with a calf six weeks old. Mrs. Oland of Dixtown is spending the week in New York on business combined with pleasure. John Stoddard has leased the Steadman farm for the coming year. Sammie D. Pierce was in Norwich the past week. Grover C. Main finished moving the goods of Mrs. Bergerson from near Stewart Hill to the former Knight farm at Barter's Hill the first of the week. Edna May has taken a big drop in price—only 15 cents the first of the week. The storming of Tuesday was welcomed after a three days rain and fog. Peepfrogs were heard Friday for the first time. A flock of geese went over to the north.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Party in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Greene—State Grange Officers Entertained. Miss Rana Barber and James Barber spent one day this week with their sister, Mrs. J. H. Frink. Olney Chappell has a new motorcycle. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rockwood entertained a party of friends at their home Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Greene, who are leaving town to make their home in Pomfret. Reuben Manning's men and teams have gone to Montville to draw logs for the Hoffman sawmill. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith and son Ernest, Mrs. Grace Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Smith and daughter Blanche, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frink, Miss Grace and Charles Frink and Charles Davis attended the 30th anniversary of Lebanon grange Tuesday evening. Reuben Manning was in Pomfret Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. J. D. Simpson has returned home after spending a week in Norwich with her son, Arthur W. Simpson. Entertained State Officers. State Grange Overseer Charles D. Davis of Middletown and State Grange lecturer Frank E. Blakeman of Stratford, who came to attend the 30th anniversary of Lebanon grange Tuesday, March 30th, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rockwood. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan of Baltic spent Sunday with Mrs. J. C. Mahoney. Fred B. Little has entered the employ of James H. Hyde. Miss Maria Allen and Mrs. Grace Peckham attended the missionary meeting at Leffingwell Monday.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. Avery and Mrs. Dolbear were in Norwich Town the first of the week. Mrs. Fowler was in Uncasville Sunday. Lewis Dolbear was in Norwich on business Tuesday. Many are sick with colds. William Hunter was in New London the first of the week. Mrs. John Fielding and Mrs. Ackley were in Plainfield Thursday.

SHUNOC

Mrs. Eugene West's Funeral—Frank N. Peabody, Dead.

There was again a curtailment of attendance at church services Sunday on account of the storm. The funeral of Mrs. Eugene West was held from her home in White Rock Saturday afternoon, with burial in the River Bend cemetery at Westerly. The deceased is survived by her husband and eight children. Rev. Clayton A. Burdick of Westerly officiated at the funeral. Public auctions are nearly an everyday occurrence. The funeral of Frank N. Peabody, who died in a hospital at New Bedford, Mass. Sunday, was held in the second Baptist church here Thursday morning. Rev. J. M. Collins, pastor of the church, officiated. Many attended the service, and the flowers were beautiful. Burial was in the Peabody cemetery. There are two surviving brothers, Thomas L. Peabody and Howard Stoughton. The late Major F. S. Peabody, grandfather of the deceased, was a teacher of renown in his day. Besides being widely known as a newspaper correspondent. Peeping frogs have come and wild geese are flying north. Mrs. Gage, wife of Prof. Snyder Gage, of Newburg, N. Y., with her son, James, were Monday guests of Mrs. Henry E. Randall and Mrs. E. B. James at their home in this place. Mrs. Gage at one time resided in Mystic and is a daughter of W. Herbert Lamb of that place.

LISBON

Old Trees Removed—Ernest Enquist with Military Company. Mrs. T. E. Davies is entertaining her sister from West Randolph, Vermont, at the parsonage. Tree Warden A. F. Read has removed two large old trees, an elm and a maple in front of his residence. Mrs. A. J. Gallup, who has been ill with a severe cold, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Jr., and two children spent Sunday at J. R. Barber's. With Military Company. Ernest Enquist is in Branford this week with the military company to which he belongs. Misses Grace and Edna Sharkey of Jewett City visited over Sunday with Miss Ruth Kennedy. Joseph Gelsi, whose nineteenth birthday occurred last Friday, is very low.

GALES FERRY

Change in Methodist Pastors—Gift for Thomas Latham on 74th Birthday. Judge Steers Buys Luzerne Spalding Cottage.

Rev. C. Wilson Harrison has been appointed by Bishop Hamilton of the New England Southern conference to the M. E. church at Bridgeport, R. I. The Rev. James M. Potter is to succeed Mr. Harrison in this place in the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Mr. Potter coming from the Bridgeport church here. Rev. Mr. Potter is a former pastor of the M. E. church here for six years, has been appointed to Uncasville. On conference Sunday no service was held during the day. The evening service was followed by a rehearsal of Easter music. Thomas Latham 74. Thomas Latham celebrated his 74th birthday Saturday, March 28, at his home in the village. He received cards, gifts, a birthday cake, fruit and other gifts, with felicitations from his children and grandchildren, none of whom reside in the village, but in Hartford, Guilford, Essex and Middlebury. He also received a shower of postcards from friends both in and out of the village, with another birthday cake and other gifts from village friends. Farm Sold. Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins passed the deed of sale of the farm known as the Albertus Maynard place at the U. S. Post Office place, near Wallace Norcross. They have ETOX 13. The first wild geese of the season heard here passed over the village last Thursday evening. The village school, with Miss Grace Chapman teacher, which has been having the spring vacation of one week, will reopen Monday next. Buys Spalding Cottage. Judge Alfred Steers of Brooklyn, N. Y., who spent some time in one of the cottages on the bluff last summer, has purchased the cottage belonging to the estate of the late Luzerne Spalding of Norwich. It is said. Miss Florence Bennett, principal of the grammar school at Waterford, spent Friday night at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Pierce of Allin's Point. Miss Bennett was on her way to spend her vacation at her home on Vergennes avenue, Norwich Town. Bailey Place Sold. Harold Peckham has purchased the place near Long Cove known as the U. S. Anson Bailey place from Mrs. Mary A. Chapman of Uncasville. Mr. Peckham will take possession as soon as possible after the family living there can vacate. Mrs. Richard Pevey and daughter, Miss Grace Pevey, of New London were guests at the farm of D. R. Pevey near the village Wednesday.

FRANKLIN

Miss Armstrong Going to New Hampshire—Grangers at Lebanon Anniversary.

Miss J. Anna Armstrong of Providence spent the week end at her home. She is about to leave for Lake Winnebago, N. H., where she expects to spend the summer. P. M. Mabrey attended the Elks' lodge institution in Willimantic Monday evening. Fred Collins of Baltic was the guest of Herbert Wheeler, Jr., Sunday. E. Edcomb has returned from the Backus hospital much improved in health. Mrs. William H. Ladd of Sprague was a recent visitor in town. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geer and son Donald of Norwich were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grant. Mrs. Hermon A. Gager and Mrs. Hattie Cole were Norwich visitors on Tuesday. Punctual in Attendance. Schools in town opened Monday. The pupil present every day last term was Celia White; Dorothy Cox was absent one-half a day. Henry Bellows, P. M. Mabrey and Miss Amelia Mabrey were in Willimantic Sunday. Lydia Johnson was a Norwich visitor on Wednesday. Elsie Maine was home on Sunday. Mrs. Charles Beckwith and Miss Eleanor Beckwith were in Norwich Tuesday. Ralph Maine was in Willimantic Sunday. Mrs. James Simpson is spending two weeks in Willimantic. At Lebanon Meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, Ernest Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Smith and Blanche Smith, G. A. Miller, Mrs. Frank of New York and Grace Frink attended Lebanon grange meeting Tuesday evening, it being the 30th anniversary. Susan Paley received a registered Holstein-Friesian bull from Barrington, Ill., last Saturday. It is a yearling and weighs 200 pounds. Arthur Mahoney was home over Saturday from Gardner Lake, where he is at work. The roads are quite muddy in places, especially through the swamp, and a few days' warm weather would help dry them greatly.

LEBANON

Whist Club Meets—Grange Celebrates Its 30th Anniversary.

The Lebanon Whist club held a party Friday evening in Grange hall. Fifteen tables were played. The following prizes were awarded: Ladies—First, Sarah Danielson; second, Mrs. J. B. Blakeslee. Gentlemen—First, James Caldwell; second, William Lillie. Consolation awards—Gladys Clark and Fred Coville. Grange's 30th Birthday. The grange celebrated its 30th anniversary Tuesday evening in Grange hall. Two granges were represented. The charter members took part in the programme. The speakers were State Lecturer P. E. Blakeman of Middlebury and State Overseer Charles T. Davis of Oronoque. An appetizing collation was served. Sent Missionary Barrel. The Ladies Aid society met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, when they packed a barrel valued at $50 and sent it to the Brexer, Normans and Industrial school in Greenwood, S. C. Miss Vera Hoxie spent a few days this week in Elliott, the guest of her schoolmate, Lucy Hopkins. Miss Sarah Danielson has returned to Mt. Holyoke after spending her vacation with her parents Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Danielson. At Norwich Funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Standish were in Norwich Monday attending the funeral of a relative. Mrs. Nellie Little has returned home after spending some time in Franklin. Miss Ruby Sweet, who attends Northfield seminary, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sweet. Mrs. Fred Madley and Mrs. Hollis Campbell were in Willimantic Tuesday. E. A. Hoxie and Myron Hoxie attended the Sherman Beebe auction Monday. Mrs. William Robinson, Miss Winnie Robinson and Miss Hattie Robinson spent Tuesday with Charles Geer. Mrs. Charles Troland and daughter Doris were in New London and Norak for the week end. Miss Valérie of Norwich was the guest over Sunday of Miss Ruby Sweet. Peepfrogs were heard the 27th of March. BGOZRAH Grange Hears Papers and Has April Fool Parade—Death of Mrs. John J. Gager. On account of the rain Wednesday evening the meeting of the grange was held Thursday evening. The subject was New England Agriculture. The programme follows: The Past History, by the worthy master, C. B. Davis; Present Conditions, Benjamin Davis; Future Prospects, Worthy Overseer E. A. Bishop; readings by Mildred Abel, Mrs. Davis and Rana Barber. There was an April Fool parade by the young people in crooked costumes. The grange bulletin was read. The entertainment.

HANOVER

Miss Pullen of Norwich to Make Two Addresses—Lecture by Dr. Charles Eastman.

The meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held tomorrow (Sunday) evening in the church. There will be special trailer service, led by the choir. William G. Park, after which Miss Pullen of Norwich will address the young people in the interest of the W. B. M. and the Look-Up-to-the-Mountain school in China. She will also speak to the Young Crusaders at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Conference at Jewett City. The conference of the six churches will be held in Jewett City Wednesday, April 8. Lecture on Indian Life. The fourth concert of the C. E. course was held Wednesday evening in the Congregational church. All enjoyed the lecture on Indian life and habits, which was of unusual interest. Dr. Eastman is a pure Indian of the Sioux tribe. The course has inspired the hope to have something similar another winter. Faithful Employe Forty Years. The funeral of M. Collins was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Collins lived in Hanover for forty years, during which time he was machinist in the Airline mills. Personal. Edwin Babbitt and family, who have been living on the Walker farm, have moved to one of the mill tenements. Mrs. Walker and her daughter Marion are visiting friends in this town. A number from Hanover attended the dance in Scotland Wednesday night. ROAD SOCIETY Five o'Clock Tea—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frink Married 38 Years. Miss Maude Pettigrew of Groton was recent guest of Miss Martha G. Williams. Worthy Master Fred Barnes attended the luncheon and business meeting of the New London County Improvement league at the Mohican. The choir is practicing special music for Easter. They met with Mrs. Fernande Wheeler on Friday evening. Miss Marian Lathrop, of Norwich

LEONARD BRIDGE

Mrs. Abell, Over 20, Has Second Ride on Steam Cars—New Owners for Abell Farm.

Mrs. Leverett A. Manwaring and her mother, Mrs. Harriet Abell, went to Cromwell Wednesday where Mr. Manwaring has purchased a small farm. Mrs. Harriet Abell is over 20 years of age and it was the second time she ever rode on the steam cars. Mr. Manwaring started Wednesday to drive through to Cromwell. The new families who bought the Bezdell Abell farm have arrived here from New York. Louis Himmelfest was a Colchester visitor Monday. Kenneth L. Cummings was in Willimantic Sunday. Miss Nellie Clifford, a timekeeper in No. 4 mill, Willimantic, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford. Mrs. Clifford E. Cummings was in Lebanon Tuesday.

MAKE YOUR OWN PAINT

YOU WILL SAVE 50 CENTS PER GALLON. THIS IS HOW. Buy 4 gals. L. C. M. Semi-Real Paint. Add 3 gals. Linseed Oil to mix with it. 1.25 Makes 7 gals. Paint for $9.95. It's only $1.42 per gal. THE L. C. M. SEMI-REAL PAINT IS THE BEST. REAL PAINT IS 100 CENTS PER GALLON. Buy a gal. out of any you buy and if not the best material, return the paint and get your money back. L. W. Carroll & Son. Walter Kingsley & Son, Plainfield.

has been the guest of her uncle, A. B. Wheeler, and family this week. Mrs. Seth N. Williams and Miss Grace I. Wheeler entertained a number of young people at a croquet Wednesday in honor of Miss Mary Starr Wheeler and her guests. Schools about here closed Friday for vacation. Married 38 Years. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frink celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary Sunday and entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hays and John Kane of Groton. Misses Lucy and Priscilla Billings are at home from their schools for the holidays. John S. Palmer of New York was at church here Sunday. George Blodgett and her guests returned with Miss Marian Lathrop to her home in Norwich. George Blodgett and family have moved from the Frank Noyes place near the church to New Haven, and Henry Mattison and family of Mystic have moved into the house.

SALEM

Winners in Prize Speaking Contest—Walter Kingsley Carries Off Honors for Buttermaking.

A large and appreciative audience was present at the prize speaking contest conducted by State Supervisor J. A. Young of Colchester and participated in by four of the schools in town held in Grange hall Tuesday evening. The following program was carried out: Opening remarks by J. A. Young, who announced that Rev. Mr. Blake and Prof. Meserve of Colchester and William R. Darling of town would act as judges. The School Committeemen, Miss Lillian Cohen; Little Jacob Strouse, Master Philip Cohen; The Week of the Hopewell, Miss Vivian Casonowski; The North American Indians, Miss Lucy Casonowski; Fidelity, Miss Anna Elsenstein; Bingen on the Hudson, Master Willie Day; The Polish Boy, Master Wellesley Hanney; Hohenlinden, Master Clarence Hatt; Elmick in School, Miss Pauline Hatt; Andrew Jackson, Master Lawrence Spencer; The Coming of Spring, Miss Ruth Two; Prof. Meserve gave the decision of the judges as follows: First prize, Master Wellesley Hanney; second prize, Master Willie Day; third prize, Miss Lillian Cohen. Mr. Young gave a most interesting talk on the coal and oil fields of Pennsylvania. Stereoscopic views were thrown on the screen by Prof. Meserve. Personal. R. A. Bailey and Mrs. Susie R. Rogers are ill. Charles Malona was a New London visitor Wednesday. Enoch Crandall is spending several days with relatives in New London. Won Fine Prize. Walter Kingsley, formerly of this place now employed on the Glenburn farm at Stockbridge, Mass., was successful in winning the prize in a recent buttermaking contest. His sample was pronounced the best of the 35 samples submitted. The prize-won was a De Laval Separator. Arthur Kingsley has resigned at Glenburn farm, Stockbridge, Mass., and is expected home today, April 4. Married Twenty Years. Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ray passed the 20th anniversary of their marriage quietly at their home last week Wednesday, March 28th. Lawrence Beebe of Norwich Free Academy is spending his vacation at the home of his parents in town. A few enthusiastic fishermen were on the brooks Wednesday, April 1, but no catches were reported. Frogs were first heard in this vicinity Tuesday evening. Schools in town closed for the spring vacation on Friday. They will reopen Monday, April 12. C. E. McIntosh of Colchester, rural carrier on Route 3, has been confined to his home with grip for the past week. C. E. Staples, substitute carrier, is caring for the route. LEFFINGWELL Party at Miss Margaret Beebe's on April 1st. Miss Florence Taylor of Norwich was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Rogers, Sunday. Misses Marjorie Harbridge and Ella M. Leffingwell have been spending several days with the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Gabbott of Central Vermont. Mrs. W. B. Caulkins of Norwich was the guest of her daughter, Miss Hazel Caulkins, at her home in Groton. Mrs. J. Elliott Dolbear has returned after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Ambrose Sullivan at Trading Cove. Irving W. Foote was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. E. Fitch Johnson in Norwich. Miss Gertrude Ward spent Wednesday with friends in Jewett City. Mr. and Mrs. Lovett and daughter, of Yantic, have moved to the Uncas farm recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. William Partridge. About twenty-five young people enjoyed the evening of April 1st at the home of Miss Margaret Beebe. Avery Gallup won the prize, a chocolate rabbit, in the guessing game, Santa Claus, cake and fruit punch were served during the evening. Among the guests were Miss Blanche Armstrong and Herbert Willey of Norwich.